Who are they?

TUESDAY, AUGUST 17, 2010

A really great guy...

The National Study of Youth and Religion discovered that teenagers tend to think that a God exists who created the world and watches over life on earth. God also wants people to be good, nice, and fair to each other.

They believe that the central goal of life is to be happy and feel good about yourself, and that God need not be involved except when needed to solve a problem.

DIAMOND Project deploys the latest mobile technologies and new media for anti-drug education and secondary prevention. The project targets high risk and hermetic youths. Reformed youths will be hired to engage the target clients through Virtual Mentors on a Mobile Dialogue Platform.

閃鑽計劃以手提電話技術作為嶄新媒介, 為高危及隱蔽的青年人灌輸禁毒的資訊及進行預防工作。計劃主要透過手提電話的對話平台(SMS), 讓專業社工及過來人與青年人對話, 並透過活動邀請作親身接觸。

 - Can we accommodate their values?
- Could we provide them proper channels?
 - Do we want to re-connect themselves?
 - Do we want to re-connect to society?
